

Why will the Wines of the World be better than ever?

Greater Selection of Wines – Over 30 tables representing two hundred of Rochester’s most popular wines – as well as “what’s new” in the world of wine! You can also expect a few beer tasting tables and a vodka / martini station with a beautiful ice sculpture!

Expect big Andy’s Liquor “special-event” discounts on all your favorites!

More Space – We’ve been given more space than ever before – courtesy of the Kahler Hotel. You can expect more comfort in 2010!

More Food – Every attendee on Friday night will be issued a special food ticket which will allow you an opportunity to go through the buffet line consisting of cocktail sandwiches, mozzarella sticks, vegetable quesadillas, assorted mousses, coffee and dessert bars.

Saturday night attendees can expect an elegant dinner buffet that includes a tossed green salad, Chicken Picatta or Chicken Marsala, whole grain rice, fresh vegetables, coffee and assorted cakes.

Victoria’s Restaurant – Still hungry? After the event is over you can bring your Wines of the World ticket up the Kahler Hotel steps into Victoria’s Restaurant and receive any of their happy hour appetizers for just $3!!!

More Entertainment – We will have a caricature artist, professional masseur with massage table, a real-life psychic who will read your palms, as well as a photo-booth to commemorate the experience!

MMMMM Chocolate! – In a new partnership with Stam’s Chocolaterie, for the first time ever, the Wines of the World will include a chocolate tasting at the event!

Easy Parking – FREE parking will be available at the Kahler Hotel parking ramp as well as the Center Street parking ramp. (Located ½ block from the Kahler Hotel off Broadway / Center Street. The ramp is connected to the skyway so you can stay inside!)
